

SOCIETY

TO MEET DR. AND MRS. WILLIAMS
Complimenting Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, the former the acting pastor of Central Union church, the Women's Society of the church will give an informal reception Thursday evening, March 8, at 8 o'clock, in the church parlors, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large. All of the strangers in the city who have shown their interest in Central Union by attending any of its services, or any others who would like to become acquainted with its members are especially urged to be present on this occasion. Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Williams in receiving will be Miss Alice Knapp, Mrs. John Gulick, Mrs. Zabriskie, Miss Agnes Judd, Mrs. Philip Frenar, Miss Forbes and Miss Belle Weisut.

The program for the evening is in the capable hands of Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, while Miss Violet Atherton will have charge of the decorations. At the conclusion of the program refreshments will be served, the committee in charge being Mrs. Henry Bicknell, chairman, and Mrs. S. De Freest, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Edwin Farmer, Miss Barnhart, Mrs. Charles Frazier and Mrs. Madson, assisting.

THE HAWAIIAN CLUB
Mrs. James Jaeger was hostess on Friday of this week for the Hawaiian Club. After the business of the club was completed several very interesting papers were read and discussed, and the afternoon finished with refreshments as in the days of old. Coconut milk and other Hawaiian delicacies were served. About 30 members were in attendance.

MRS. E. McCULLY-HIGGINS "AT HOME"

One of the most delightful and charming parties given in a long time was the one at which Mrs. E. McCully-Higgins presided as hostess on Friday afternoon. The reception took place in the drawing-room of the Young Hotel, where Honolulu society of yesterday forgot the march of time and came and enjoyed themselves, for when Mrs. McCully-Higgins lived here years ago she was a social leader.

Mrs. McCully-Higgins, with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, make their home in Oakland, and a cordial and hearty alpha awaits all islanders who would like to visit this hospitable home. The hostess Friday was very regal looking in Chinese white broadcloth silk with touches of beautiful silver lace. A large picture hat of black lace was worn and with it a bird-of-paradise for ornament made a stunning picture complete.

Mrs. McCully-Higgins was assisted by Mrs. Albert Newton (annubell) and Mrs. John Francis Doyle. The task of assisting at this function was indeed a pleasant one.

The Russian orchestra played during the afternoon. The rooms were ablaze with flowers, the gifts of Mrs. McCully-Higgins' large circle of friends. She leaves Wednesday for her California home.

Mrs. Wilmet E. Ellis, who has filled an important social position here and who, with her husband, Col. Ellis, leaves for the Orient next week.

and will return in two years to winter here again. Her summers are spent in Maine.

The friends who were bidden and called during the afternoon were Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham, Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. Emma Nakulua, Miss Frear, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. John Francis Doyle, Mrs. Weirich, Mrs. Curtis Hughes, Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Mrs. Abbott of Oakland, Miss Dilly, Mrs. Agnes Judd, Mrs. Lawrence Judd, Mrs. Charles Judd, Mrs. Serebia Gulick, Mrs. Lane Miss Pindar, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. A. Gattley, Mrs. Schofield, Miss Schofield, Mrs. Holliday, Mrs. Eames, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, Mrs. Jane Walker, Mrs. E. Weston Bishop, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. J. M. Whitney, Mrs. William R. Castle, Mrs. George Castle, Mrs. John McCandless, Miss J. Parko, Miss A. Parko, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. John Waterhouse, Miss Burbank, Mrs. Blackmore, Mrs. Phillip Dodge, Miss Stringer, Mrs. Robert Shingle, Miss Becker, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. Harriet Castle Coleman and others.

PLEASANTON HOTEL ACTIVITIES
At the Pleasanton dance on Wednesday about 200 guests were in attendance. Mrs. E. McCully-Higgins entertained there at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Puffer and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Dean and others.

MRS. STUART JOHNSON, A LUNCHEON HOSTESS
Seated about a table made most attractive with a gold backed cloth with variegated, assistings and lace fern, Mrs. Stuart Johnson was a luncheon hostess on Wednesday of this week. Seating after luncheon was a pleasant form of entertainment. Mrs. Johnson's guests were Mrs. Ray Allen, Mrs. T. Jamerson, Mrs. Tom Church, Mrs. Frank E. Blake and Mrs. Casar Phillips.

MR. AND MRS. I. M. STAINBACK'S DINNER
This evening Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Stainback are entertaining very informally with a bridge dinner at their home. The table will hold a basket filled with deep yellow chrysanthemums and lilies in yellow will add a dainty finish. Mr. and Mrs. Stainback's guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. James Cockburn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lange. After dinner two tables of bridge will be the diversion.

MISS LALLY A DINNER HOSTESS
Miss Lally was a dinner hostess on Thursday evening at the Moana hotel, when she entertained friends for the dance. The table was most attractive, decorated with a basket of la France roses, Shasta daisies and lace fern. Miss Lally's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayselden, Miss Eleanor Eastlake, Mrs. John Hartford, Mr. George Kibbey, Mrs. Joseph Kibbey, Mr. C. Van Welse, Mal. Rufus E. Longan and Capt. Alfred E. Saw. King.

COL. AND MRS. WILMOT E. ELLIS HONORED

Col. and Mrs. Wilmot E. Ellis, who, to the keen regret of all of Honolulu, are leaving here next week for a vacation in the Orient, are the guests of honor at a "musical guessing evening" that Capt. and Mrs. Frank Drake are giving this evening.

The rooms are to be decorated with white roses, white field daisies, white Shasta daisies and baskets of ferns and choice palms.

Mr. Drake will play at the piano and the guests must guess what she is playing, then Mrs. Drake will sing and again the guests must guess, so a delightful evening is anticipated.

Col. and Mrs. Ellis have been among the most popular of the service set in Honolulu, both being very delightful and with personalities that leave a decided impression. They have been three years at Fort Ruger and everyone there wishes it might be for another three years, so popular are they with all.

Capt. and Mrs. Drake's guests tonight will be Col. and Mrs. Wilmot E. Ellis, Capt. and Mrs. Hugo E. Fitz, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Magruder, Capt. and Mrs. Carr W. Waller, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold F. Loomis, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bailey, Miss Bailey, Capt. and Mrs. Hugh J. Knerr, Miss Daphne Dow, Lieut. Edward Witsell, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert C. Clark, Capt. and Mrs. George H. Rühlen, Jr.

A buffet supper will be served.

MR. A. W. PIET A DINNER HOST
Mr. A. W. Piet of Spokane was a dinner host last evening in the private dining room of the Courtland hotel. A basket of coriopsis graced the table center and a pleasant hour after dinner was enjoyed in social conversation. Mr. Piet's guests were Mrs. West, Miss Fry, Mr. and Mrs. West, Mr. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stillman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth.

A LUNCHEON PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bradner were luncheon host and hostess on Friday at the Pleasanton hotel. A basket of spring flowers made an attractive centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradner's guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. English, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Croxson, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Snow, Miss Kate Croxson, Miss E. L. Whitmore, Miss J. J. Scott and Mr. C. Hutchins.

DANCING PARTY TONIGHT
This evening Miss Margaret Thurston is hostess at a dancing party for The Minute Club. About 75 guests are expected.

MAI AND MRS. RUSSEL P. HEADER HONORED
Mr. and Mrs. Russell P. Reader were the guests of honor at a dinner given Monday evening at the Pleasanton hotel by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Weesell.

A COMING MASQUERADE
Madam E. Witsell, Lieut. Edward Witsell and Dr. Harry Deiber have issued invitations for a masquerade and dancing party at the dancing hall at Fort Shafter next Friday evening.

AN INFORMAL LUNCHEON
Mr. and Mrs. David Rice had as their luncheon guests at the Pleasanton hotel on Friday Mrs. Blackmore and Miss Burbank.

Mrs. Markos Kipling was hostess at a small sewing-tea in honor of Mrs. Helene Holt, who is to marry Mr. Marmon Magoon. The tea was held at the Magoon home on Friday afternoon.

MAUI SOCIETY NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY DANCE ON MAUI

WAILUKU, Maui, Mar. 2.—The Washington's Birthday dance at the Alexander house gymnasium last Saturday night was one of the most enjoyable dances ever given at this popular place. Some 200 or more merry dancers were present, the cool evening lending much to the pleasure of the occasion. The proceeds of the dance are being used in completing the new tennis courts across the street from the gym.

MRS. W. A. BALDWIN A HOSTESS

WAILUKU, Maui, Mar. 2.—Mrs. W. A. Baldwin of Hailu was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Hailu Social Welfare Club, a new organization which has succeeded the old Hailu Club, which formally disbanded a few weeks ago. There were 21 members present yesterday, and the time was devoted to sewing for the Honolulu branch of the Red Cross Society. It is possible that the club may itself organize as a Red Cross branch.

During the afternoon the ladies were entertained by Mrs. Anne Howell, who read "Eve's Diary" by Mark Twain, to the great pleasure of all. The organization plans to meet monthly in the future.

MRS. S. H. DOWSETT'S BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

WAILUKU, Maui, Mar. 2.—In celebration of her 77th birthday, Mrs. S. H. Dowsett of Makawao on Thursday was the honor-guest at a charming luncheon given by her daughter, Mrs. Dora von Tempky and her granddaughter, Mrs. A. G. Zabriskie, at Erewhon, the von Tempky place in Kula. Mrs. Dowsett was the recipient of many congratulations from the friends brought together for the occasion. The lunch was especially dainty and pretty and was greatly enjoyed. The place favors were quaint, old-fashioned bouquets of white and purple violets and tea roses.

Those present were Mrs. Dowsett, Mrs. D. B. P. Penhalow, Mrs. Aiken of Kahului, Mrs. North Aiken, Mrs. Ben Williams, Mrs. James Cumming, Mrs. C. Durney, Mrs. F. W. Hardy, Miss Emily Wells, Mrs. von Tempky, Mrs. Zabriskie and Mr. McKibbin.

SWEAR OFF, OR BUY SAFETY RAZOR, GIRLS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Naughty girls who puff cigarettes and sip claret had better invest in safety razors. For they are doomed to have an undainty little mustache, declares Dr. L. M. Young, 1708 Market street. "They pay for these little vices with their beauty," he declares. "It is only a question of time before they will have a hairy growth on their upper lip."
